

PALATIUM e-Publication 5

The Interior as an Embodiment of Power

The Image of the Princely Patron and its Spatial Setting
(1400-1700)

Edited by
Stephan Hoppe, Stefan Breitling and Krista De Jonge

With the assistance of
Andrea Gáldy

PALATIUM
Heidelberg 2018

Contents

Preface
Krista De Jonge	7
Introduction
Stephan Hoppe, Krista De Jonge, Stefan Breitling	9
Between Place and Function: Notes on the Portrait Galleries in Charles IV's Residences of Karlstein and Prague
Annamaria Ersek	15
Ceremonial 'Grey Areas': On the Placing and Decoration of Semi-Public and Semi-Private Spaces in Burgundian-Habsburg Court Residences in the Low Countries (1450–1550)
Krista De Jonge	31
Furnishing the Dukes with a Royal Reputation: The Use of Chambers and Chapels at the Burgundian Court
Katherine Anne Wilson	57
Hospitality and Splendour: The Case of Schloss Neuburg am Inn, c.1530
Nicole Riegel	79
Holbein's Whitehall Mural for Henry VIII: Spacing a Place for the King
Astrid Lang	101
Mary Stuart's Inner Chamber at Holyrood: An Embodiment of Power
Alexandra Nancy Johnson	129
The Court of the Sun God Revisited: Interiors of the Royal Villa in Wilanów in their Cultural and Political Context
Franciszek Skibiński	151

Aristocratic Interiors of the Kaisersaal Type from the Mid-seventeenth Century in the Kingdom of Hungary: A Case of Habsburg Imperial Iconography in the Lange Saal of the Pálffy Residence at Červený Kameň (Slovakia) Ingrid Halászová-Štibraná	173
Vienna, Prague, Paris and Augsburg: The Provisioning of Interior Decoration in the Ludwigsburg Residence Ulrike Seeger	193
The Model of a Régence Palace Interior: The Dollhouse Collection Mon Plaisir in Arnstadt/Germany (1690-1750) Annette C. Cremer	205
List of Contributors	231